

Reducing inequality, improving human capital, and increasing well-being post-Covid-19 pandemic

Making the economy more inclusive and people-centered

Establishing a comprehensive, inclusive, and innovative social protection system to prepare for future shocks

Enabling accelerated and inclusive learning & skilling to achieve resilient education systems and reap demographic dividends

Moving beyond GDP as a prosperity measurement

Developing a shock-responsive, inclusive, and resilient social protection system

Leveraging digital system for delivering social assistance and financial inclusion

Preparing resilient education systems for learning recovery and stronger collective futures

Investing in skills to reap dividends from demographic transition

Integrating the well-being framework & multidimensional poverty into policy design and objectives